CANCELLATION & CONTINUANCE POLICY

To avoid lost-time charges, you must notify our offices of any cancellations or continuances by the dates specified below:

Up to one full day of hearing time.....14 days prior to hearing

More than one and up to two full days of hearing time.....21 days prior to hearing

More than two days of hearing time.....28 days prior to hearing

(or as set by the panelist)

Scheduled fewer than 14 days before hearing48 hours after scheduling

If you notify our offices of cancellations or continuances after the date specified above, lost-time charges will be incurred. Lost-time charges consist of the fees for any hearing time that we are unable to fill with another matter, the fees for any preparation already performed by the panelist, and the administrative fees. Credit to lost time charges will be given for any time we can fill.

If a request for cancellation or continuance is not by mutual agreement, the canceling party or parties will be responsible for all lost-time fees.

If a party to a multi-party hearing cancels or settles out at any time prior to the hearing, the total hearing fees will be adjusted, if necessary, and reallocated among the remaining parties. If the cancellation of that party results in a cancellation of the hearing, the canceling party will be responsible for the lost-time charges.

Fees for scheduled time that is only partially used are not refundable.
